ENVISION Yountville Speaker Series 2017

Whether you are a long time resident or new to our community, we all know that Yountville is a truly special place. Our Town offers an exceptionally high quality of life made possible by its natural setting, a thriving local economy and an eclectic local population. As we begin a new year, we are embarking on a community-wide journey to ensure that our community retains its unique character well into the future. Envision Yountville is an 18-month process to help us define our values and plan for our future needs. We hope you will join us for an exciting speaker series to learn more about the key issues facing Yountville and to share your vision and ideas. Topics will include Community Character, Agricultural Preservation, Mobility, Local Business Balance and more.

Please save the dates and plan to attend! All meetings will be held on Thursday evenings in the Heritage Room of the Community Center (6516 Washington Street) starting at 6:00 p.m.

Coming soon! For more information, visit our project website www.EnvisionYountville.com.

Employee Profile: Rhonda Bowers, Utilities Operator

What do you do for the Town? I am a wastewater operator at the treatment plant. I also assist with the collection system and distribution of drinking water as needed. I help keep the water clean and treat water so that it is safe to release into the environment. Welcome, Rhonda - we are happy to have you here!

Why are you excited to be here? I wanted to be a part of something that made a difference, and to protect the environment and the community I serve!

What do you do in your spare time? I enjoy playing sports and outdoor activities with my family and friends.
