

Got Empty Batteries? Take Advantage of the Household Hazardous Waste Recycling Center in Yountville!

Most household batteries are usually not rechargeable. Many of us simply dump used batteries in the trash without understanding the harmful effects on the environment. The EPA (Environmental Protection Agency) estimates about 350 million batteries are used in the U.S. annually, with elements such as cadmium, alkaline, nickel and mercury that are seriously unsafe for our environment.

It is important to know how to recycle household batteries. Please dispose of your used batteries at the Yountville Household Hazardous Waste Drop-off Facility located at 7501 Solano Avenue between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding holidays. Call the Wastewater Reclamation Facility at (707) 944-2988 if you have any questions.

Other items that are accepted: Used motor oil & filters, used anti-freeze, latex/oil based paints, auto batteries, fluorescent/CFL light bulbs and E-Waste.

NO LARGE HOUSEHOLD APPLIANCES ARE ACCEPTED

Meaning refrigerators/freezers, washing machines, driers, stoves/ovens, etc.

Safety Message from Sheriff John Hallman

Hello Yountville neighbors,

As some of you may have heard, we had a prowling incident early in the morning last month. The subject was unable to enter the residence due to wooden dowels the resident had placed in the sliding door tracks. I would like to take this chance to remind our community to please call either 9-1-1 or the non-emergency dispatch phone number (707-253-4511) if you see anyone suspicious around your or your neighbor's houses. We are happy to come investigate the situation.

For those of you that do not have alarm systems, small magnetic window and door alarms are very inexpensive and available in multipacks at your favorite box store or online retailers. They run a long time on batteries and let you know if someone is trying to open a door or window. I have included a picture of these type of alarm devices.

Stay safe and please call us at (707) 299-1308 with any questions.
