Happy 2020 Yountville!

On behalf of the Town of Yountville, we wish you a Happy 2020! And to start the year strong, the Parks and Recreation Department has released the Winter 2020 Guide! The Guide is a great source to find out about all the exciting free, or at a low cost, programs that the Town has for you. Here are some highlights of fun early in 2020:

BRIDGE: Come to Yountville Community Center on Wednesdays to play BRIDGE! This cool game led by locals Billie Hewitt and Karla Yates is a favorite of locals. The first meet is on Wednesday, January 8, 2020 and continues weekly on Wednesday so you can play and enjoy each others company. Plus, on Wednesdays, there's always FREE popcorn! This activity is free for all and starts at 1:30 p.m. at Yountville Community Center.

EXCURSION: Join Parks and Recreation for the Legion of Honor Museum Excursion! This excursion takes you through San Francisco to see the work of James Tissot, one of the most celebrated artists of his time. Also on display is Curious & Wonderful Selections from the Achenbach Vault and Alexandre Singh: A Gothic Tale. Fee for this excursion includes luxury bus transportation, ticket into the museum, staff concierge, and bites and drinks. The excursion is February 4, 2020 departing at 9:15 a.m. To reserve your spot visit yvilleparksandrec.com.

There are tons more events planned for 2020 including some town favorites such as Yountville Out Loud, Art Sip and Stroll, and Easter Egg Hunt. To find about all that is coming in the first half of 2020, grab your copy of the Winter 2020 Guide at Town Hall or Community Center. You can also download it at yvilleparksandrec.com.

Happiness Program

The Town of Yountville is now accepting proposals for the Small Projects Grant Program, better known as the Happiness Program. The Town Council created and approved the Small Project Grant Program in 2018 which provides up to $1,000 grant funding for fun and engaging activities that benefit the community. Residents, non-profit organizations, business owners, and any employee working in Yountville can submit an application detailing their idea for a fun program.

To find more information regarding this program or how to apply for a grant. Visit www.townofyountville.com/happinessprogram. The deadline to apply is February 14, 2020 at 5:00 p.m.

New 3-Hour Parking Limits

The Town has started enforcing 3-Hour parking limits in public parking spots throughout several commercial areas in Yountville. The new parking limits were established after receiving community input and Town Council direction during the Parking Workshops this year. The parking limits are located at the following locations:

- 3-Hour Parking at Washington Street in North Yountville between Pedroni Street and Madison Avenue
- 3-Hour Parking at South of Veterans Memorial Park between California Drive and Champagne Drive
- 3-Hour Parking on Jackson Street along Yountville Community Park at the playgrounds on the south side of the parking area

New Vacancies for Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission

Have you ever wished you could do something to improve your community? Did you make volunteering one of your New Year's Resolutions? Then joining the Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission could be the right fit for you!

The Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission (PRAC) was established to advise Town Council and staff on matters that pertain to facilities, parks, public recreation, library, cultural and historical activities, senior citizen and teen activities.

PRAC has four (4) vacancies, three (3) for community volunteers and one (1) for a high school representative. The application opens on January 18, 2020 and closes on February 5, 2020. To apply, visit the Boards and Commission page at www.townofyountville.com/boardsandcommissions.
